The screenshot displays a user interface for the Intel Partner Alliance Points Benefit program. It features four main category cards: 'Products', 'Activities', 'Ecosystem', and 'Other'. Each card includes a title, a brief description of how to earn points, and a blue button labeled 'See Points offers'. The 'Products' card is expanded to show three sub-links: 'Intel® Components & Systems ›', 'Intel®-based ODM products ›', and 'Intel®-based OEM branded systems ›'. Below these cards is a wide white box with a yellow border containing the text 'All Promotions ›'. The entire interface is set against a light gray background within a white-bordered container.

The downloadable Points Matrix documents are still available—as well as the 'All Promotions' page.
